Dr Manas Pratim Das is an independent scholar researching history of the relations between science and society for the last two decades. He is also a nationally known science communicator. He excels in writing about the history of science in a lucid manner that informs and entertains one and all. He is a Programme Executive at All India Radio, Kolkata and is currently heading the programme activities of Maitree, the international channel for Bangla-speaking people. He is credited with hosting the live show BIGYAN RASIKER DARBARE on FM Rainbow for twenty long years since 1999. He is a recipient of the National Award for Outstanding Contribution to Science Communication given by the DST, Govt. of India and the Satyendra Puroskar given by the Govt. of West Bengal for the best popular science book of the year. Dr Das is a guest faculty in the department of Journalism and Mass Communication, University of Calcutta. He is a Fellow of the West Bengal Academy of Science & Technology and a council member of the Indian Science News Association. He did his masters in Physics from Jadavpur University and his PhD in history of science from the same institution.
