❖ INVITATION ❖

The Department of languages (Assamese, Bengali, Khasi, Garo, Nepali & Hindi) cordially invite you to participate in the 2-day National Seminar on 'Cultural and Linguistic studies in Northeast India: Prospects and Challenges' to be held on 30th and 31st October, 2019 at the Sankardev College Conference Hall, Shillong.

About the Seminar

North Eastern States consist of different social groups with diverse cultures. The unity in diversity has been guiding the road map of Indian culture which can be seen in this far flung enchanting part of India in customary practices, folk songs and dances, food habits and forest life, manuscripts and folk literature etc. The people of North Eastern India inhabit a multi-ethnic, multi-linguistic and multi-religious society. They basically belong to three main language groups: Indo-Aryan, Austro-Asiatic and Tibeto-Burman. With the passage of time, hybrid culture is also evolving due to cultural assimilation of different ethno-cultural groups under various socio political economic systems. But North Eastern region has been facing challenges as it copes with pressure emanating from its ethnic diversity culture. The special focus in discussion of the seminar will be the present status and challenge to study the culture and languages of the north eastern region in a holistic ways.
