A two week study course is being offered by the Maulana Abul Kalam Azad Institute of Asian Studies in collaboration with the Department of Oriental Languages at Stockholm University for young researchers who are interested in doing fieldwork in Asia.

The course will focus on the theoretical, methodological and ethical aspects of the fieldwork in Asia. Faculty members from MAKAIAS, Stockholm and Tsukuba Universities as well as external lecturers will be invited to interact with the students.

Applications are invited from interested post graduate students to join the course.

Students will be selected by a selection committee of the Institute. They will be provided with course materials required for the study.

Students from within Kolkata will be provided with facilities and inputs required for full time participation.

Applications must reach the Institute by August 15, 2011.

Applications via e-mail including a 200 word write up indicating interest in the course and cv (including postal and e-mail address) are invited.

Please send applications to the following Director info@makaias.gov.in
